Fill in these blanks to create sentences that could relate to a modern-day situation—either your own or someone else's.

“ _____ tells you that _____ will save you from our power but _____ is deceiving you and will let you _____. He is the one who _____ and then told (them) to _____. Don't you know what (we) have done to other _____ s? Did _____ ever save (them) from us? When did _____ ever save (them) from us? Then what makes you think that _____ can save you? Now don't let _____ deceive or mislead you like that. Don't believe him! No _____ has ever been able to save _____ from any _____. So certainly this _____ of yours cannot save you!” (2 Chronicles 32:11–15)
